You shall go out with joy and be led forth with peace; The mountains and the hills will break forth before you. There'll be shouts of joy and all the trees of the field will clap, will clap their hands, and all the trees of the field will clap their hands; The trees of the field will clap their hands; The trees of the field will clap their hands while you go out with joy.

SERMON TEXT

Matthew 17:1-8 (NKJV)

1 Now after six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, led them up on a high mountain by themselves;

2 and He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light.

3 And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Him.

4 Then Peter answered and said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if You wish, let us make here three tabernacles: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

5 While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them; and suddenly a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Hear Him!"

6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces and were greatly afraid.

7 But Jesus came and touched them and said, "Arise, and do not be afraid."

8 When they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only.

Application:

Wednesday 13 Leo Schlink

Focusing on the miracles can distract you from the lessons God wants you to learn.

Stop listening to yourself so God can clarify your thoughts and direct your path.
