SERMON TEXT

Isaiah 53:3-8 (NET)

3 He was despised and rejected by people, one who experienced pain and was acquainted with illness; people hid their faces from him; He was despised, and we considered him insignificant.

4 But he lifted up our illnesses, he carried our pain; even though we thought he was being punished, attacked by God, and afflicted for something he had done.

5 He was wounded because of our rebellious deeds, crushed because of our sins; he endured punishment that made us well; because of His wounds, we have been healed.

6 All of us had wandered off like sheep; each of us had strayed off on his path, but the LORD caused the sin of all of us to attack him.

7 He was treated harshly and afflicted, but he did not even open his mouth. Like a lamb led to the slaughtering block, like a sheep silent before her shearers, he did not even open his mouth.

8 He was led away after an unjust trial, but who even cared? Indeed, he was cut off from the land of the living; because of the rebellion of his own people, he was wounded.

Applications:

Despite our rebellion against God's will, He made the ultimate sacrifice in proving His eternal love to redeem us.

There is no more excellent and convincing demonstration of His love toward everyone.
