

“Living Each Day with Assurance”

By Pastor Bill Hayden

01/09/25

Philippians 4:19 NKJV: “But my God shall supply all of your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.”

Each new year brings different challenges to our lives that we have not planned for, many of which we may not have control over... as the saying goes, ‘Life happens.’

Since we believe that God intentionally created us in His image and likeness, we are ensured our lives are sustained. He sustains all the things He has made for His glory. What a blessing to know and live life in the fullness of knowledge that your lack is momentary. It doesn’t matter what each day’s challenge may bring your way. It is a robust lifestyle as we walk by faith, knowing that our God goes before us and we live with eternity in view.

As always, we enthusiastically present our ideas and plans for this new season of life in the new year. With the assurance that God is with us, we have confidence in our hearts, which others will observe as we approach each challenge gracefully.

We pray that God will bless us with continued good health and strength to reflect Himself. We pray for the leaders of this country to seek God's wisdom and change their hearts to prioritize the people's needs over greed and power. We pray that believers live out their faith, rely on God’s provisions, and not fear the unknown.

As God has been, so shall He forever be... Faithful!

He takes care of our physical needs, gives us rest and renewal each day, provides direction from His word, and gives us His grace to disburse to others. He faithfully shows us how to escape the enemy’s traps. He helps and comforts us when we are hurting. He saves us and gives us His peace that transcends all understanding. He will always point us to the truth as His truth-tellers.

Action: Let each day begin and overtake you joyfully, knowing that God... has got you!
Alleluia!
