*Benediction	"The Trees of the Field"	Congregation
	You shall go out with joy And be led forth with peace; The mountains and the hills will break forth before you. There'll be shouts of joy and all the trees of the field Will clap, will clap their hands. And all the trees of the field Will clap their hands; The trees of the field Will clap their hands, The trees of the field Will clap their hands While you go out with joy.
Postlude	"How Can I Keep From Singing"	Tammy Welsh
	Arr. James Koerts

SERMON TEXT

Hebrews 11:1-5 (NET)

1 Now faith is being sure of what we hope for, being convinced of what we do not see.

2 For by it the people of old received God's commendation.

3 By faith we understand that the worlds were set in order at God's command, so that the visible has its origin in the invisible.

4 By faith Abel offered God a greater sacrifice than Cain, and through his faith he was commended as righteous, because God commended him for his offerings. And through his faith he still speaks, though he is dead.

5 By faith Enoch was taken up so that he did not see death, and he was not to be found because God took him up. For before his removal he had been commended as having pleased God. For before his removal he had been commended as having pleased God.

Applications:

Faith is the fuel that propels you forward against contrary winds.

Faith is essential in being commended as a follower of Christ.
