	You shall go out with joy And be led forth with peace; The mountains and the hills will break forth before you. There'll be shouts of joy and all the trees of the field Will clap, will clap their hands. And all the trees of the field Will clap their hands; The trees of the field Will clap their hands, The trees of the field Will clap their hands While you go out with joy.
Postlude	"Festive Praise" Lloyd Larson	Catherine Ellacer

SERMON TEXT

Hebrews 11:6-10 (ESV)

<sup>6</sup> And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

<sup>7</sup> By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

<sup>8</sup> By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going.

<sup>9</sup> By faith he went to live in the land of promise, as in a foreign land, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs with him of the same promise.

<sup>10</sup> For he was looking forward to the city that has foundations, whose designer and builder is God.

Applications:

What pleases Father God is your trust in His ability alone.

Feelings deceive us, while faith in Him relieves us of the unknown.
