	You shall go out with joy And be led forth with peace; The mountains and the hills will break forth before you. There'll be shouts of joy and all the trees of the field Will clap, will clap their hands. And all the trees of the field Will clap their hands; The trees of the field Will clap their hands, The trees of the field Will clap their hands While you go out with joy.

SERMON TEXT

Luke 8:43-48 (ESV)

43 And there was a woman who had had a discharge of blood for twelve years, and though she had spent all her living on physicians, she could not be healed by anyone.

44 She came up behind him and touched the fringe of his garment, and immediately her discharge of blood ceased.

45 And Jesus said, "Who was it that touched me?" When all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the crowds surround you and are pressing in on you!"

46 But Jesus said, "Someone touched me, for I perceive that power has gone out from me."

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been immediately healed.

48 And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace."

Applications:

The reward is always greater than the risk in following the prompting of the Holy Spirit.

Our faith in Christ takes us from fear to fulfillment.
