SERMON TEXT

John 12: 1-8 (NKJV)

1. Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus, who had been dead, was, whom He had raised from the dead.

2 There they made Him a supper, and Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with Him.

3 Then Mary took a pound of very costly oil of spikenard, anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped His feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil.

4 But one of His disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, who would betray Him, said,

5 "Why was this fragrant oil not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?"

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief and had the money box, and he used to take what was put in it.

7 But Jesus said, "Let her alone; she has kept this for the day of My burial.

8 For the poor you have with you always, but Me you do not have always."

Applications:

Our People may be impressed by our actions, but the Lord knows our hearts.

Greed doesn't allow you to live in appreciation for others.
